Education

2014–2022 PhD., Institute of Formal and Applied Linguistics, Charles University, Prague Thesis topic: Non-Autoregressive Neural Machine Translation

2011–2014 Mgr., Computational Linguistics, Charles University, Prague

2007-2011 Bc., Computer Science, Charles University, Prague

Research Internships

2019 Microsoft

Four-month research internship; non-autoregressive models for neural machine translation

2017-2018 Google

Four-month research internship; deep learning for NLP

2016–2017 University of Edinburgh

resource settings.

Four-month research internship; neural machine translation

Work Experience

2017–present Research Assistant, Institute of Formal and Applied Linguistics, Charles University, Prague Research on multimodal translation and improving neural MT with linguistic information.

2020–2022 Research Associate, University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh Working on non-autoregressive neural machine translation and on machine translation under low-

2016 Research Fellow, Deutsche Forschungszentrum für Künstliche Intelligenz (DFKI), Berlin Five-month research fellowship; neural machine translation

2012–2016 Java/C++ Developer, IBM Prague R&D Lab, Prague Student position

2014–2015 Data Analysis Expert, Technological agency of the Czech Republic (TAČR), Prague Document-level clustering on large data collections.

2011–2012 PHP developer, Intya, s.r.o, Prague Development of e-shop applications and other web pages.

Awards

2022 Steven Krauwer Award, awarded at the CLARIN Annual Conference to the ÚFAL for Ukraine team for the Czech–Ukrainian translation tool built in response to the Russian invasion to Ukraine in 2022 and the subsequent refugee crisis in the Czech Republic, Prague

2017 Outstanding paper, for paper "Attention Strategies for Multi-Source Sequence-to-Sequence Learning" on the ACL 2017 conference, Vancouver
